

Procedures for the Election of the Directors

(Note: This English translation is provided for reference only and might not exactly reflect the true meaning and full text of the original language.)

1 Purpose

To ensure a just, fair, and open election of directors, these Procedures are adopted pursuant to Articles 21 and 41 of the Corporate Governance Best-Practice Principles for TWSE/GTSM Listed Companies.

2 Scope

Except as otherwise provided by law and regulation or by this Corporation's articles of incorporation, elections of directors shall be conducted in accordance with these Procedures.

3 The board of directors of this Corporation shall consider adjusting its composition based on the results of performance evaluation.

3.1 More than half of the directors shall be persons who have neither a spousal relationship nor a relationship within the second degree of kinship with any other director.

3.2 The overall composition of the board of directors shall be taken into consideration in the selection of this Corporation's directors. The composition of the board of directors shall be determined by taking diversity into consideration and formulating an appropriate policy on diversity based on the company's business operations, operating dynamics, and development needs. It is advisable that the policy include, without being limited to, the following two general standards:

3.2.1 Basic requirements and values: Gender, age, nationality, and culture.

3.2.2 Professional knowledge and skills: A professional background (e.g., law, accounting, industry, finance, marketing, and technology), professional skills, and industry experience.

3.3 Each board member shall have the necessary knowledge, skill, and experience to perform their duties; the abilities that must be present in the board as a whole are as follows:

3.3.1 The ability to make judgments about operations.

3.3.2 Accounting and financial analysis ability.

3.3.3 Business management ability.

3.3.4 Crisis management ability.

3.3.5 Knowledge of the industry.

3.3.6 An international market perspective.

3.3.7 Leadership ability.

3.3.8 Decision-making ability.

4 The qualifications for the independent directors of this Corporation shall comply with Articles 2, 3, and 4 of the Regulations Governing Appointment of Independent Directors and Compliance Matters for Public Companies.

5 The election of independent directors of this Corporation shall comply with Articles 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 of the Regulations Governing Appointment of Independent Directors and Compliance Matters for Public Companies, and shall be conducted in accordance with Article 24 of the Corporate Governance Best-Practice Principles for TWSE/GTSM Listed Companies.

6 Elections of directors at this Corporation shall be conducted in accordance with the candidate nomination system and procedures set out in Article 192-1 of the Company Act.

When the number of directors falls below five due to the dismissal of a director for any reason, this Corporation shall hold a by-election to fill the vacancy at its next shareholders meeting. When the number of directors falls short by one third of the total number prescribed in this Corporation's articles of incorporation, this Corporation shall call a special shareholders meeting within 60 days from the date of occurrence to hold a by-election to fill the vacancies.

When the number of independent directors falls below that required under the proviso of Article 14-2, paragraph 1 of the Securities and Exchange Act, a by-election shall be held at the next shareholders meeting to fill the vacancy. When the independent directors are dismissed en masse, a special shareholders meeting shall be called within 60 days from the date of occurrence to hold a by-election to fill the vacancies.

7 The cumulative voting method shall be used for election of the directors at this Corporation. Each share

- will have voting rights in number equal to the directors to be elected, and may be cast for a single candidate or split among multiple candidates.
- 8 The board of directors shall prepare separate ballots for directors in numbers corresponding to the directors or supervisors to be elected. The number of voting rights associated with each ballot shall be specified on the ballots, which shall then be distributed to the attending shareholders at the shareholders meeting. Attendance card numbers printed on the ballots may be used instead of recording the names of voting shareholders.
 - 9 The number of directors will be as specified in this Corporation's articles of incorporation, with voting rights separately calculated for independent and non-independent director positions. Those receiving ballots representing the highest numbers of voting rights will be elected sequentially according to their respective numbers of votes. When two or more persons receive the same number of votes, thus exceeding the specified number of positions, they shall draw lots to determine the winner, with the chair drawing lots on behalf of any person not in attendance.
 - 10 Before the election begins, the chair shall appoint a number of persons with shareholder status to perform the respective duties of vote monitoring and counting personnel. The ballot boxes shall be prepared by the board of directors and publicly checked by the vote monitoring personnel before voting commences.
 - 11 If the elector is a shareholder, the elector shall state the name of the candidate and the shareholder's account number in the elector column; if the elector is not a shareholder, he/she shall state the name of the candidate and the identity document number. However, if the government or a corporate shareholder is the candidate, the name of the government or corporate shall be listed in the Elected Name column of the ballot, and the name of the government or corporate and the name of its representative may also be listed; if there are several representatives, the names of the representatives shall be added separately.
 - 12 A ballot is invalid under any of the following circumstances:
 - 12.1 The ballot was not prepared by a person with the right to convene.
 - 12.2 A blank ballot is placed in the ballot box.
 - 12.3 The writing is unclear and indecipherable or has been altered.
 - 12.4 The name of the candidate is a shareholder, the account name or shareholder number of the elected person does not match the register of shareholders. ; The name and identification number of the candidate do not correspond to the identity of the shareholder, the name and identification number of the candidate shall be checked.
 - 12.5 Other words or marks are entered in addition to the number of voting rights allotted.
 - 12.6 The name of the candidate is the same as that of other shareholders without the shareholder's account number or identification number for identification purposes.
 - 13 The voting rights shall be calculated on site immediately after the end of the poll, and the results of the calculation, including the list of persons elected as directors and the numbers of votes with which they were elected, shall be announced by the chair on the site. The ballots for the election referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be sealed with the signatures of the monitoring personnel and kept in proper custody for at least one year. If, however, a shareholder files a lawsuit pursuant to Article 189 of the Company Act, the ballots shall be retained until the conclusion of the litigation.
 - 14 The board of directors of this Corporation shall issue notifications to the persons elected as directors.
 - 15 These Procedures, and any amendments hereto, shall be implemented after approval by a shareholders meeting.
